

Circular Economy Internship

Position: Circular Economy Intern
Employment: 100%
Place: CompPair Technologies SA, Lausanne, Switzerland
Duration: 6 months minimum
Starting Date: September 2026

Overview:

CompPair Technologies Ltd. is a Swiss company providing healable and sustainable composite solutions to improve circularity. Inspired by nature, CompPair brings an intrinsic healing capability to composites. The company provides a range of glass and carbon preimpregnated textiles, to produce composite structures that can heal matrix damage on site in 1 minute only; improving operational efficiency, reducing repair time, and extending lifetime of products. The company is also working on the development of new product families, to further extend the application potential of this technology to other composite markets, including other manufacturing processes.

The present internship aims at contributing to the company's sustainability activities and circular economy initiatives. The trainee will play a key role in supporting the quantification of environmental and economic benefits of innovative composite material technologies for market opportunities. In addition, the intern will be working in a dynamic start-up environment with a view on the development of a company.

Specifications:

- Contribution to data collection and analysis of case studies and industrial innovation projects
- Assessment of CompPair products' sustainability and quantification of benefits for the composite value chain
- Assisting the team in the implementation of circular strategies such as repair and reuse in industrial products

Competences:

- Background in materials science, chemistry, engineering or related field
- Knowledge of Circular Economy principles and sustainability frameworks
- Proficient English communication and writing skills
- Proficient French communication and writing skills (nice to have)
- Experience with composite materials and/or polymers (nice to have)
- Experience with Life Cycle Assessment methodology and software (nice to have)
